1 Match the words to make sentences. Then answer the questions.

Use Lots of, A lot of, Not much or Not many.

How many students have you got in your family? _________
1 How much money do you have today? _________
2 How many brothers and sisters are there in your class? Lots of students.
3 How many lessons have you got in your pocket? _________
4 How much homework did you do yesterday? _________

2 Complete the questions with much or many.

Example: How ___ water do you drink every day?
1 How ______ rivers are there in Egypt?
2 How ______ fruit would you like?
3 How ______ horses are in that field?
4 How ______ chariot races have you seen?

3 Write questions about your classroom. Use How much or How many.
Then write answers with Lots of, A lot of, Not much or Not many.

Example: How many chairs are there? Lots of chairs.

1 ________________ _________
2 ________________ _________
3 ________________ _________
4 ________________ _________
4 Read the words and decide if you can add dis to make an opposite word. Then write the opposite word or [X].

Example: ___x___ drink

disagree

1 ______appear
2 ______honest
3 ______go
4 ______like
5 ______swim
6 ______obey

5 Write sentences with the words in brackets.

Example: (distrust) I sometimes distrust the things I read in the newspaper.

1 (disappear)
2 (dishonest)
3 (disagree) 