The story

One day on the farm, Mother Duck hatches six eggs. Five of them are ducklings but one is a funny bird. It has big feet and strong legs, spiky wings and a long neck. It’s an ugly duckling. The hens start to peck him so he runs away. He runs a long way and finds a pond where he meets some geese. The geese are friendly and he stays with them. But one day a hunter comes, so the ugly duckling decides to move on. He comes to a house where there is an old woman. But the old woman has a cat and a little bird and they don’t like the duckling so he moves on. He comes to a lake and he sees some swans. He thinks they are beautiful. But it’s very cold and the next day the duckling is stuck in the ice. A woodcutter saves him and takes him home. He stays with the woodcutter and his family, but one day the woodcutter’s wife says he is too big, and he must go.

He goes back to the lake and sees the swans again. He swims in the lake and looks down into the water. He sees that now he is a swan, too.
Introducing the book

The cover

• Hold up the book and point to the cover. Read the title to the class. Read it again and encourage the children to repeat it after you.
• Ask them to look at the picture and ask What do you think the story is going to be about?

The title page

• Ask the children to turn to the title page. Hold up your own book and point to the picture. Ask What sort of animals are these? Elicit the words duck and duckling. Elicit from the class anything they know about ducks.
• Point to the picture again. Ask Where is the ugly duckling? and elicit from the children that he is the big duckling at the front.
• Ask How do you think the other ducks feel about the ugly duckling?
• Ask What do you think the story is going to be about?

The contents page

• Ask the children to turn to the contents page. Explain that the Contents list tells us what is in the book.
• Ask How many chapters are there?
• Read the chapter titles to and with the class. Briefly explain any unfamiliar words.
• Read the last two sections of the contents page Three Little Ducks and Animal babies.
• Explain that Three Little Ducks is a song, and that the Animal babies section gives information about a number of animals and their babies.
• Read the chapter titles again and ask questions about them to stimulate the children’s interest, for example.
• Chapter 4: What does a hunter do? What can he do in this story?
• Chapter 7: How can an animal get stuck in the ice?
• You can play the audio download of the story at any time you choose. See http://www.macmillanyounglearners.com/readers/macmillan-english-explorers
Chapter 1
A very big egg
Pages 3 to 6

Before reading
- Pre-teach vocabulary, and practise new items.
- Look at page 3. Ask the children which animals they can see and how many of each.
- Look at page 4. Ask What is Mother Duck doing? What will happen to her eggs?
- Look at page 5. Ask What is happening?
- Look at page 6. Ask Where are they? What is Mother Duck doing?

During reading
- Read page 3 (or play the audio). Do not stop to explain or ask questions. Ensure that the children are following in their books.

2 Why didn’t the other swans peck or hit him?
• Write the words swan, lake and swam on the board. Repeat them aloud and ensure that the children understand the difference in pronunciation of the letter ‘a’ in each case.
Three Little Ducks
Pages 36 and 37

Before reading
- Read the title of the poem and look at the first picture. Ask the children what they think the poem will be about.
- Look at all four pictures. Ask the children what they think happens in the poem.

During reading
- Read the poem (or play the audio). Ensure that the children are following in their books.
- Read the poem again – this time the children should read along with you.
- Read again. Get individual students or groups of students to read each verse.

After reading
- Ask questions to check understanding.
- Ask children to give (and explain) their opinion of the poem.
- Ask about the features of the poem. There are words that rhyme, and there is a rhythm and verse structure.

Animal babies
Pages 38 and 39

Before reading
- Ask Which of these animals did you meet in the story?
- Ask Which of these animals was the ugly duckling?

During reading
- Look at the different animals with the children and read out the words for them to repeat.

After reading
- Game: Ask the students questions about each of the types of animal, for them to answer with the correct word, for example:
  - ‘Male duck.’ ‘Drake.’
  - ‘Female chicken.’ ‘Hen.’
  - ‘Baby cow.’ ‘Calf.’
- The children can play the same game in pairs or in small groups. To make the game more challenging they could cover the words and use the pictures.
After reading the book
These questions are intended for oral use in class but you may ask children for written responses if you feel it is appropriate.

Response to the story
• Ask Did you like the story? Why? Why not? Did you think it was interesting or boring? Was it exciting or too predictable? Which part of the story did you like best? Were there any parts of the story that surprised you? What did you think of the ending?

• Talk about the way each chapter ended. Ask Did the end of the chapters make you want to read on? Talk about how this technique is often used in stories and other media such as TV.

Characters
• Ask the children about the main story characters. Did you like the hens? Did you like the woodcutter’s children? Why? Why not?

Plot
• Encourage the children to retell the basic story in their own words. They can use the pictures as a framework for doing this.

Settings
• Ask Where did the story take place? Go through the book with the class and ask them to identify each of the story settings.

Moral issues and themes
Use any of these themes from the story as a basis for a class discussion:
• Difference. Ask Why do some animals treat the ugly duckling badly? Is it because he is different to them or to other ducklings?

• Beauty. Ask How do things change when the ugly duckling becomes a beautiful swan? Do we prefer animals that are beautiful?

• The seasons. Ask What happens in each of the five seasons in the story? (Spring, summer, autumn, winter, spring again). Are the seasons like this in your country? What other things happen in these seasons?

Vocabulary
• Pick out one or more words from the active vocabulary list for each chapter. Ask the children if they can remember the meanings.

• Ask the children to show their understanding of the vocabulary by using the words in sentences.

Follow-up ideas
• As a class compose a story sequel using this story as a model.

• Alphabetical animals. There are a lot of different animals in the story. Ask the class to put together an alphabet using as many animal words as possible.

• Drama. Get the children to act out the story of the ugly duckling. Give each child a part to play and they can act out the story as you read it.
