Lesson 2  An adventure story

Listen and read. Act out the story.

1. It's summer. Some children are having fun on the beach.
   What are you doing?
   I'm making a sandcastle.

2. Two children, Lia and Sam, are snorkelling in the sea.
   Wow! Look at the fish.
   Yes. They're amazing!

3. Suddenly, Lia and Sam see a shadow in the water.
   We're playing volleyball. Come and join us.

4. Oh no! It's a shark.
   It's got big teeth and it's swimming towards us.

5. Help!
   I don't know. It's big. I'm scared!

   Listen, Sam! The dolphins are making noises to scare the shark.

It's a shark. Save us!

Oh, wow! They're protecting us. I can't believe it. And look. The shark is swimming away.
5 Read and answer the questions.

1. What are Sam and Lia doing in the sea?
2. What is the shadow in the water?
3. What are the dolphins doing?

Listen and check.

4. What is the shark doing?
5. Are Sam and Lia safe?
6. Do Sam and Lia like dolphins?

6 ☁️ Read and reflect.

This story is a myth / an adventure story / a detective story.

I think the story is interesting / scary / funny.

The shark is friendly / dangerous.

Dolphins protect sharks / people.

Think about it:

- Is it important to keep safe?
- What do you do to keep safe?

Tiger Street Club Report

Many children go to the seaside in the summer. It’s sometimes cloudy or raining, but there are lots of fun things to do on the beach. You can go for donkey rides and eat fish and chips. You can also write postcards to your family at home, like this one.

A holiday postcard

Dear Aunt Rasha,
I hope you’re well. I’m having a great time at the seaside. We’re staying in a bed and breakfast near the beach. It’s fantastic! Today it’s cloudy and raining. We’re visiting a search and rescue centre. It’s lots of fun. I don’t want the holiday to end.
See you soon,
love from Nasim

18 Prepare your project

Think about and say.
• where you are and where you’re staying
• the weather
• what you and your friends are doing

READING CORNER: a poem

Shell

A shell is lying
On the wet rock.
It's small and round,
Grey and brown,
Smooth and shiny.
A tiny animal is living
In its perfect home.

A shell is lying
On the wet rock.

I'm looking for my pen.

What are you doing?

Don't panic! Here I am.
I'm cutting the string with my teeth.

I'm reading the poem.

Suddenly ...

Help, Magpie. I'm flying!
